Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This is a non-final Office Action for application number 10/711,100 Radio Bin Spacer, filed on 8/23/04. Claims 1-17 are pending. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7/9/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by United States Patent Publication No. 2005/0032426 to Tanaka.

The publication to Tanaka discloses a device having a bin having one closed end (2) and open end (1) and further having a top wall with a structural rib (1d), a bottom wall and two side walls having a mounting tab (5) located on the rear wall, the tab having a bore therein, the rear end having a pair of spacer stanchions (2a, 2b) located thereon, the bin having an exterior dimension allowing mounting within an instrument panel opening designed for a larger than standard sized radio and further having interior dimension allowing mounting of a standard sized radio directly therein.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 2-7 and 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over United States Patent Publication No. 2005/0032426 to Tanaka and in view of United States Patent No. 6330121 to Kobayashi et al.

Tanaka discloses applicant's basic inventive concept, all the elements which are shown above with the exception that it does not show the specific materials of plastic, polypropylene, thermoplastic olefins, butadiene and polycarbonate.

Kobayashi et al. teaches a mounting device for a optical device which is made of plastic, polypropylene, thermoplastic olefins, butadiene or polycarbonate (See Col.12 lines 24-29 for material), the materials used for their resilient and strength properties. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art from the teachings of Kobayashi et al. to have made the device of these materials in order to have a resilient and strong device.

Claims 8, 9, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over United States Patent Publication No. 2005/0032426 to Tanaka and in view of United States Patent Publication No. 2005/0231954 to Czech.

Tanaka discloses applicant's basic inventive concept, all the elements which are shown above with the exception that it does not show the specific materials of aluminum and metal.

Czech teaches a mounting device for a optical device which is made of aluminum metal (See page 2, paragraph 0023 for material), the material used for their strength properties. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art from the teachings of Czech to have made the device of these materials in order to have a strong device.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
